BRIAR SWEET'S QUALITY.

As a two-year-old Briar Sweet, a chestnut filly, by Sir Modred—Sweetbriar, by Virgil, started in seven races, of which she won one and was third in three. Her solitary success was in the Vernal Stakes for fillies, over the last five furlongs of the Futurity Course at Sheepshead Bay. She ran during her two-year-old career as the property of Marcus Daly and probably is still his. Her reputation was that of a speedy non-stayer of no extraordinary merit.

Throughout her three-year-old career she ran in the name of W. B. Jennings. Along with other horses he took her to San Francisco, where she made her first start as a three-year-old February 1, 1898, in a five-furlong dash over the Ingleside track. Montgomery won by a neck and she was second. Time 1:04. She carried 101 pounds and Montgomery 113. February 4 she beat a field of very common fillies over the same course carrying 110 pounds, track muddy. Time 1:03. Tuesday, February 22, she started for the California Oaks, 117 pounds up. Her opponents were Napamax, Torsida, Benite, Recreation and Martha II., all tried good fillies. Her reputation as a non-stayer caused her to be an outsider in the betting, it being 8 to 1 against her chances. But she won without any trouble, Napamax second, and it was then known that besides being like her famous brother Dr. Hasbrouck, a brilliant sprinter, she was also able to go the long route as well. Saturday, March 5, she started in a dash of five furlongs against some very speedy ones. Paul Griggs, then in rare form, beat her a length. Time 1:00. Tea Rose III., Montgomery and Libertine finished behind her and after that she won every race for which she started.

March 21 she beat Bellicoso, O'Connell, St. Callatine, Rubicon and Hurly Burly at the same distance. Time 1:00. Four days later she beat a good field at a mile very easily. Weight 107 pounds. Time 1:40. Her next start was at seven furlongs, April 23, with 97 pounds up she defeated May W., 108; Rubicon, 116 and Morinel 97, but she was to run in 1:24 and made a track record to do it. It was her last race of the year in California. Brought east she started at Brighton Beach July 11 in a six furlong dash. With 116 pounds up she easily beat a fast field. Time 1:44. Two days later she beat Tabouret and a joblot of fillies at the same distance in 1:16. At the same track July 21 she won the Santiago Handicap, 1 1/8 miles, from Dr. Catlett, 112; Our Johnny, 100; Peep o' Day, 115 and Semper Ego, 112. She carried 102 pounds and won by a nose. Time 1:53 and a track record.

She ran no more until August 27, at Sheepshead Bay, where, carrying 110 pounds, she was started for the Ocean Handicap at a mile. She won very easily, with Irish Reel, 118, Bangle, 106, Algol, 119, Mirthful, 113, Peep o' Day, 122, Semper Ego, 115, Lady Marian, 90 and Royal Stag, 115, in order behind her. Time 1:40. It was a notable performance. Two days later she beat Kenmore Queen at six furlongs. Time, 1:14. At Gravesend, September 13, she won the First Special, 1 1/4 miles very easily in 2:07. She carried 102 pounds and behind her were Candleblack, 105, Alice Farley, 102, Algol, 122 and The Friar, 122. Then with 114 pounds in the saddle she beat Irish Reel, 120, Alice Farley, 114 and Fast Black, 90, in a mile dash for a purse in 1:41, record time for the Gravesend track. Her career as a three-year-old was brought to a close October 11 at Morris Park in the Dixiana Stakes for three-year-olds, one mile. The order at the finish was, Briar Sweet, 119, Bangle, 118, Handsel, 109, Swiftmas, 109 and Baastar, 115. Time, 1:41. It was a fine ending of a year of grand performances.

Apparently this grand young mare is all that one could ask for in a racehorse, all distances and weights seem to be within her capacity. Comparing her with Firenze, Miss Woodford, Yo Tambion or other famous mares of days gone by is useless. They were queens of the turf in their time as she is in hers. That she is equally good this year was shown at San Francisco when she won the Pacific Union a few days ago in track record time. A very distinguished corner is before her if she remains sound. Here is what she has done.

Years.	Races.	1st.	2nd.	3rd.	Unp.	Won.
1897	7	1	0	3	3	$1,930
1898	15	13	2	0	0	11,985

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A dispatch from New Orleans to a Cincinnati newspaper says:

"There has been a hitch in the deal for the services of the crack light weight jockey O'Connor. Messrs. Bennett and Daly have come to terms all right, but now the boy himself is disposed to kick out of the traces. Mr. Bennett offered Mr. Daly $5,000 for the transfer of his contract for the boy's services, which do not terminate until July 2, 1901, and the offer was accepted. Under this contract, in addition to a nominal sum to be paid his father, the boy is to receive $25 for each winning mount, on horses from the stable, $10 for each second and nothing when third or unplaced, as well as all fees for outside mounts. O'Connor wants Mr. Bennett to give him a stated salary, $3,000 per year, instead of fees, and says that if the old agreement is to continue he will prefer to remain with Daly and ride in the east.

"Bud Renaud, who was deputized by Mr. Bennett to act for him in his absence, has informed the Memphis turfman of O'Connor's demand, but has not as yet been advised as yet whether to accede or not. If the salary asked by the jockey were in lieu of all fees, it would be to Mr. Bennett's advantage to comply with the boy's terms, but under existing conditions, such would not be the case. In all probability, the Memphis owner will effect some kind of compromise with the light weight."

Those Canadians who know Mr. James Carruthers, the big grain operator, will be pleased to see him getting together a few good racehorses. His first two purchases last year were Topmast, 6, by Top Gallant—Essay, by Enquirer, and Guilder, 4, by Esher—Tribby. Both these horses have proved good investments and both earned winning brackets again last week at San Francisco. Within the past few weeks Mr. Carruthers has strengthened his stable by the following noteworthy additions:

Two-year-old filly by Tenny—Ailee.
Two-year-old filly by Bassettlaw—
Two-year-old filly by Midlothian—Angelique.
Two-year-old brown gelding, by Watercress—Sister Warwick.
Starboard, br. f. 3, by Watercress—Oceanica.
Al Koran, b. g. 4, by Duncombe—Veronica.
Mainbar, ch. g. 3, by Sir Modred—Everglade.
Latanus, b. c. 3, by Duncombe—
The youngster by Midlothian—Angelique is a full sister to Saintly, one of the best three-year olds at the track.—Canadian Sportsman.

THE MONTGOMERY HANDICAP.

The weights assigned by secretary Macfarlan to the horses engaged in the Montgomery Handicap, published in DAILY RACING FORM Tuesday, will be closely scanned by western turfmen. With its endowment of $2,000 added money, the Montgomery is now really the most valuable handicap of the middle western turf, except the Washington Park handicaps, and as a consequence secretary Macfarlan has faced the perplexing task of giving weights to the great majority of the good handicap horses of the west. Algol has been given the well-earned position of top weight with 126 pounds to carry, a weight that his eastern career shows he can readily handle. Algol is a very fast and powerful racehorse and if all goes well with him he will no doubt do great things in racing this year. Schorr's good colt Lieber Karl and old Simon W. stand next with 117 pounds each. Lieber Karl has been very leniently treated, but in the light of his racing at New Orleans, Simon W. would have no chance with ten pounds less. Macy and Imp at 114 pounds each, have nothing to complain of.

At 112 pounds The Roman would have a chance second to no horse in the race if Tom Ryan should succeed in bringing him to the post in his California form. This good horse was unquestionably stale and ailing all through his racing here last year and in no case showed his true form. F. F. V. at the same weight has been shown no favor. Semi-broken down horses seldom cut much of a figure in such races. McCafferty's trio of fast horses, Peat, 110, Handsel, 110, and Sailor King, 108, are all given imposts that should please their astute owner. Of the three-year-olds, Manuel, 107, and W. Overton, 107, are the topweights. Good colts as they undoubtedly are it is not probable either could win at the weights. At such an early period as the month of April three-year-olds have but small chance against really good older horses and the Montgomery has a number of smashing good racehorses this year in the division four years old and over. Kentucky Colonel, The Kentuckian and Onomastus have been rated as of equal capacity at 104 each, a conclusion open to argument.

In the light-weight division Dunois at 100 pounds would have a tremendous chance if he could be brought to the post as he now is, but then Dunois is in California and the perils of the long trip across the mountains and plains are manifold. Last year's Oakwood winner, Fervor, is in light at 106 pounds. A horse with record of a mile and an eighth in 1:51 with 103 pounds up is bound to be very dangerous if he comes to the post in good condition. Other light-weights nicely in are George Krats, 100; Clay Poynter, 100; Fireside, 98; Belle of Memphis, 98; Star of Bethlehem, 96; Opaque, 100 and Cherry Leaf, 98. On the whole it appears to be a very good handicap and it is difficult to see how the stake can fail to be contested by a large field of starters.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Mr. Corrigan seems to have marked the Malowansky Stake as all his own. Last year he ran first and second for it with Milt Young and Frank Ireland and did the same thing this year with St. Anthony and Golden Rule. On each occasion Burns & Waterhouse ran third, last year with Obsidian, this year with Lomond. It would be interesting to know what odds such bookmakers as Joe Ullman or John O'Neill would lay against a similar repetition next year.

Jockey Higgins and the hurdle horse J. O. C. have been reinstated by the stewards of the Pacific Coast Jockey Club. The pair were suspended at the time all the ruling off was done in connection with the crooked steeplechase at Ingleside. It transpired that J. O. C. had injured himself during the race, and on the stewards satisfying themselves that such was really the case, the ban was removed from both horse and rider.

LITTLE MINCH'S PERFORMANCES.

The table and story, "Some Veterans of the Turf," in DAILY RACING FORM, February 14, interested me greatly and I have added it to my collection of permanently valuable figures. I observe that you have limited it to horses racing since 1890 only, while you also say that it is not intended as complete, but as "a sample only." So I am not offended at the omission of a horse that I have always considered the most remarkable campaigner known to the turf. May I call your attention—and that of the readers of DAILY RACING FORM as well, should you care to print this—to him? His name is Little Minch.

"The Minch" was foaled 1880 and his last season out was 1891. You say that "Bankrupt was the iron horse of American racing." He won eighty-two races out of 344 starts in thirteen seasons. Little Minch raced ten seasons, during which he started 220 times, won eighty-five times, was thirty-nine times second, thirty-one times third and sixty-five times unplaced. Is this not a much more remarkable record?—especially as the average company he met was much harder game than Bankrupt's. From the time he was a two-year-old, when he tackled George Kinney, up to his last season, when he bumped against Dr. Hasbrouck, Little Minch never dodged the quality, from Miss Woodford down. I believe he is the only champion sprinter who even won a stake race at a mile and three-quarters, and he holds the Memphis track record for a mile and a quarter—2:10 with 121 pounds up—to this day. He also deserves a place in the "Manual's" list of American Racing Records, although it isn't given him. August 5, 1890, he being then ten years old, he won a race of seven-eighths mile heats at Garfield Park in 1:29, 1:29. I have never found where this was beaten, and the "Manual" gives no record for heats at this distance.

It is perhaps going back a long way into ancient history, this, but the old horses stick longest in the memories of the men who can remember back of Henry of Navarre or even Salvator. "The Minch," in his heyday, I used to follow with the interest of an enthusiast, and, with me, at least, "long shall the memory of his deeds endure." The schedule of his turf performances is as follows:

Year.	Races.	1st.	2nd.	3rd.	Unp.
1882	15	6	1	2	4
1883	15	9	1	2	3
1884	23	9	6	4	4
1885	24	13	1	3	7
1886	22	7	7	2	6
1887	25	15	2	1	7
1888	25	11	8	5	11
1889	31	11	6	6	8
1890	13	3	2	1	7
1891	17	1	3	5	8

Totals (10).....220 85 39 31 65

A note of explanation is due regarding those sixty-five times unplaced. A big percentage of them was due to Minch's amiable habit of refusing to break with his field, which he developed early and cultivated assiduously. How the starters loved him! At Monmouth once the stewards finally announced that no farther protection would be given him, and the next time he started he came from behind and beat Aurelia, Geraldine and one of the swiftest fields of the season in the Passaic Stakes. I remember too, that he was once left at the post at Nashville, but finally decided to go on, when he actually ran Gleaner—then at his best—to a head at five furlongs in 1:01, and covered the distance himself in a shade below 1:00.

It is also a remarkable fact that he finally retired sound, although a stallion, and every trainer knows how much easier it is to keep a mare or gelding sound than an entire horse.

JOHN L. HERVEY.

[Mr. Hervey is the statistician of the Horse Review and an authority on harness figures. But he leans to the thoroughbred in a high class way and Little Minch is one of his idols.]

Joe Shelby was messed about all through the race and badly cut off on the backstretch. He was also taken wide on all the turns. Throw his race out. Pete Kitchen ran above the mark. So did School Girl. The track favored both.

Scratched—10322 Weenatchie, 99.

Post 7 minutes. Start good. Won handily. Bobart had all the speed, but had to be hustled along in the stretch to stall off Boanerges. Double Dummy and J. H. C. fought it out for third place. Sea Robber bolted at start and was as good as left. Simon D. had some speed, but could not carry it far. Tinkler ran a bad race.

Start good. Won easily. Next five driving. Gilberto is a fair sort of a colt, who will run best in mud. He was best today. Watch for better things. Two Cheers ran his race, but was lucky. Mud suits him best. Henry C.'s performance was to or above the notch. He had good fortune. Carrie U. got away in a tangle and made up ground. So did Roadrunner, who was cut off on the turns. Tyro had little or no speed. Beau Monde crossed his legs on the second turn and fell.

Scratched—10065 University, 121.
